

Lake County attorneys giving back to United Way

Three area attorneys are teaming up to raise funds for the United Way of Lake County. The Celebrity Server/Bartender event will be Monday at Bistro 70 in Painesville.

"Celebrity" attorneys will serve their colleagues dinner and drinks while working for tips that will go to United Way. To further raise money, Bistro 70 has offered to give a portion of the $30 ticket price to United Way and raffle tickets will be sold during the event.

"We are excited to host this inaugural fundraiser for United Way," says Manav H. Raj, Esq., one of the event organizers.

"There are many attorneys in Lake County, and we are looking forward to a good night and raising a lot of money," Raj said.

The idea was brought forth by attorney volunteers working on the 2010 United Way campaign: Raj, of Rieth Antonelli & Raj; Joseph Randolph Klammer, Esq., of The Klammer Law Office; and Jodi Littman Tomaszewski, of Dworken & Bernstein.

"All proceeds from the evening will go to help those in need in Lake County," Tomaszewski said. "We are truly supporting our neighbors by holding this event."

"There are many great models of giving in Lake County, and we hope this will be one more," Klammer said.

For more information, call Raj at 216-861-2222 or Deborah Foley with United Way of Lake County at 440-352-3166.